MAGDALENA

ALBI

Inside – Outside

The Magdalena Albi Festival returns in 2025 with a new edition highlighting women artists, researchers, and practitioners around stage performance, contemporary creation, and collective reflection.

FRI. SAT. SUN. 26.27.28

From Friday, September 26 to Sunday, September 28 :

10:00 am – 5:00 pm Workshop “Elastic Body – Expressive Choir”
With Viviana Bovino and Silvia Moreno

Expand the range of expressive possibilities of the body and improve bodily awareness. Explore “what it means to be connected” (together while remaining oneself) in the service of scenic action.

FRI. SEPT. 26

5:30 pm – Round Table “Don’t Stay Hungry...!”

In the current context of crisis and collapse, it is more essential than ever to express oneself, take risks, express desire and reinvent oneself... These (female) artists do not want to remain hungry...! So, what is essential to say and do today—for artists?

8:00 pm – ABCD’R

A time to kick off the festival with various performances and contributions from artists of different disciplines (dance, music, storytelling, theater, clowning). Companies: VandalV, Nâm, CaVaLuNa...

Exhibition – Artisan-Visual Artists

9:30 pm – DJ Set (lineup to be announced)

SAT. SEPT. 27

8:00 pm – Show: “The Daughters of the Wind” – CaVaLuNa Company

An intimate documentary theater performance, powerful and poetic, presented in an unusual venue in Albi.
